

SCHOOL BOARD CLEARS MEMBER

The School Committee has exonerated Joseph Lee, one of its members, who, it is charged, was a member of the School Committee Voters' League which had violated its own rule against participating in political activities. The voters' league forwarded a copy of a letter, signed by a school teacher and bearing the signature of School Committee member Lee as well as that of Henry I. Higgins. The letter urged the election of Representative Crow and Kinney of Ward 10 on the ground that the two had opposed the House bill of last year calling for a School Committee of twenty-five members.

The New and Effective Remedy for Rheumatism, Sciatica and Neuritis

We want all the doctors in this city to know why we believe in "NURITO" because their belief is based on the fact that it is the only remedy that has been shown to be effective in the treatment of rheumatism, sciatica and neuritis. There is no remedy that has been shown to be more effective than "NURITO" in the treatment of these diseases. New Signs Contest Is Popular This Time It's "Ad" for Wife

Keen Wits Employed by Pictorial Language Writers This Week

If Sir William Ramsay needs any help in working out his new universal sign language there is no reason why he should not obtain it right here in New England.

The contest of the AMERICAN which has attracted such keen competition has demonstrated this fact. Sign language writers utilized their inventive genius last week by writing: "I am lost and hungry. Where can I find food and shelter?"

Today are presenting the first offerings in the way of writing in pictorial form the following words:

"I want a wife. Must be good housekeeper."

"Who can tell—maybe this will be the wordiest means of starting more than one romance? Look these over and then try your hand at it."

Five prizes of $1 each will be offered for the best sign sentences.

Attractions at Boston Theatres

The most critical vaudeville "fan" could find no cause for complaint in the Globe program for this week. "Camping Days" is a satirical musical comedy with a dozen clever boys and girls, enhanced by elaborate and effective stage settings, headed by the Globe Trio, proved themselves on the stage this evening.

Richard and Wade, two musical favorites, presented a funny black comedy and from LaFleur and her dog, "Zany," played the day's anticlimax. Tonight's audience will be added to the bill, as on Wednesday and Friday evenings the Country Store will be the extra attraction.

Grand Opera House. "The Oriental" burlesques furnished in entertainment at the Grand Opera House yesterday. There were plenty of gits, a great orchestral arrangement to the piece.

New Palace Theatre. The feature film at the New Palace Theatre yesterday was "Mabius," a story of the Franco-Prussian war. It was not all war, however, for the story is told as a pretty romance as well as a war story. The picture required four reels and was crowded with thrilling scenes. It was one of the most sensational of the season.

Waldron's Casino. "Hearty, Youth and Folly" was the name of the burlesque company that met this Waldron's Casino yesterday. The name of the company perfectly.

Orpheum Theatre. Russell is once more brought to the attention—this time at the Orpheum Theatre yesterday was "Mabius," a story of the Franco-Prussian war. It was not all war, however, for the story is told as a pretty romance as well as a war story. The picture required four reels and was crowded with thrilling scenes. It was one of the most sensational of the season.

'NO PLACE FOR AN HONEST MAN'

—FRESNO DAILY

"Fresno Daily" Russell believes that the Court room where the Russell trial is in progress is "no place for an honest man."

At least so he declared when he appeared in court for the first time in several weeks yesterday. His appearance and the announcement of Dakota Day's attorney, William W. McArthur, that he would close his case within the next few days, were the features of the hearing.

Fresno, so he told the reporters, came into court somewhat mysteriously, and on the request of Attorney McArthur, he said, "I am not here."

One of the reporters told him that Dakota Day had taken a day off.

"Yes, he must be having a good time," the reporter said.

Attorney McArthur tried to get Attorney Russell to take a recess of two weeks. He was refused to agree to it.

McArthur then tried to get Attorney Russell to take a recess of two weeks. He was refused to agree to it.

GAFFNEY IS DUE IN TOWN TODAY

James E. Gaffney, president and owner of the Boston National League baseball club, is due to arrive in Boston today. Gaffney will immediately get busy and draw up plans for the building up of a new team.

The Pilgrims have secured several promising players from the Pacific Coast league and it is thought that good teams should make a better showing than it did last year when it finished in last place.

George Stallings, who has succeeded Johnny Kling as manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, has already started formulating plans that may put Boston on the National League baseball map.

What IS Thought—Life's Great Mystery?

Thought gives modern man the repeating rifle that kills within the second, a mile away.

Niagara's power, PLUS thought, is changed into electric light, moving machinery, flying electric cars.

The Civilized World Recognizes in Bulgaria the Champion of Christendom

He is a man of the East, and he is a man of the West: down from his hilly pastures and his oak-crowned mountains, the Buigar has volubly strode before the world's eyes, and he has come to Mars in his eyes, and the wings of victory fall over him.

In the heart of old Bulgaria, the "Great Vardar" divided the land, the "Great Vardar" divided the

The first Bulgars in the Balkans conquered a place for themselves; then they settled in the Balkans and were blended with those whom they had begun by subduing. For a time they won glory in war, but afterwards they were dropped out of sight while the great nations around them were developed.

"ALL HONOR TO THE AMERICAN"
Editor BOSTON AMERICAN
Dear Sir: Please permit me to express my profound gratitude to you and to the whole American people for their sympathy, daily expressed through your splendid paper for the allies to their struggle against the Turks. You may be sure that the people of the Balkan States will not forget at the proper time to give voice to their thankfulness for the moral support which has gone to them from this land of holy freedom during their heroic struggle for the liberty they know exists here.

All honor to the AMERICAN for the leading part it has played in this message of sympathy to those sorely tried but valiant, undaunted and unconquerable people. Yours sincerely, G. J. D.

AMERICAN CARTOONS' LESSON
Editor Boston AMERICAN:
Dear Sir—I am an earnest reader of the AMERICAN and regard the editorials and cartoons as superior. They are always illuminating and fraught with great lessons in morals, civics and economics. Messrs. Dorgan and Cuddy are great preachers of righteousness through their masterly pictorial sermons. The pictures are sources of inspiration. Sincerely,
G. F. M.
